Please Note: Now that we no longer collect overdue fines, here is what you need to know about borrowing items from the Library:

1. HHPL is eliminating late fines for everyone.
2. Library customers will still be responsible for returning materials on time, and those who do not will still need to pay the replacement cost for any materials lost, damaged or not returned. HHPL will continue to encourage the timely return of materials, including sending due date notifications.
3. All existing overdue fines have been forgiven, and blocked cards have been reset.

Key Facts

1. Given the increasing popularity of digital materials, which don't incur late fines, and more online tools to help people manage their borrowing, (e.g. email due date reminders, online account management), fines continue to be a declining source of revenue.
2. HHPL has not charged fines on any materials since the beginning of the pandemic. This new policy will make this change permanent.
